

THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, N. Y. 10007

September 8, 2017

Dear Mr. Eliacin:

It is an honor to recognize your heroic efforts as a first responder on September 11th.

For Americans and people around the world, 9/11 brings up a flood of memories and emotions, no matter how much time has passed. While it is impossible for us to forget that day, we must always remember that in the wake of tragedy, our city and country stood united and rose together. In a time of complete uncertainty, you aided rescue and recovery efforts as a first responder and supported our city during its most challenging time. You represented the strength and generosity that defines New York, and that spirit of compassion helped to rebuild our city and continues to lead the way to a better and brighter future for all.

On behalf of the City of New York, I extend my deepest thanks for your dedicated and selfless service.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill de Blasio".

Bill de Blasio
Mayor